THE DAILY SENTINEL
RUFUS KING & WM. H. WATSON,
PROPRIETORS.
Under the Name and Firm of Rufus King & Co.

MILWAUKEE:
Thursday Morning, May 26.

Dred Scott Free!
The Supreme Court has been overruled. That "sacred" tribunal decided that Dred Scott should be a slave—thereupon his alleged owners, manumitted him and all his family. It is sad to think that Chief Justice TANEY, and his Democratic associates on the bench, backed by the entire Slave Democratic press of the country, should have put themselves on record, against Liberty, Equality and Human Rights, and all to no purpose.

The Last of the Fribillaries.

Gen. WALKER, his staff and the ragged remnant of his buccaneers, have escaped from the Costa Ricans and made good their retreat to this country. It is to be hoped that they will now stay at home, and seek some honest means of livelihood. If they can be put to no other use, they will at least serve as monuments to warn their countrymen against any further Freebooting expeditions.

The News on "Political Judges."

The Federal organ continues its impudent assaults upon Judges COURTIS and MCLELLAN of the U. S. Supreme Court, for the heinous offence of furnishing to the press and public copies of their opinions in the Dred Scott case. A column is given to this post, and the business, and the following paragraph is a good sample of the style in which the work is done:

Heretofore, the minority, or dissenting members of the Court, have, becoming yielded to the ruling of the majority,—just as good citizens do when their private notions and overcomes by superior numbers at the time; and, as far as I am concerned, to this extent, so far as a sacred right to practice an exception to the Republican present—it was left to us of the year 1857, to witness the startling spectacle of an insignificant minority of the Supreme Court of the United States sending off to the public, a document, so skillfully composed, as to be easily engrossed in the space containing the lineage below of Black Republicans in direct collision with that sacred majority!

It will be difficult, we think, for the News, or any other apologist for the Dred Scott decision, to convince our master-of-fact people, that there is anything so particularly "sacred" in the U. S. Supreme Court, or its decisions, as to require that they should be withheld from the public eye, as long as it suits the convenience, or whim of the majority; or render it "improper," and "indecent" for the minority to furnish for publication their dissenting opinions. On the contrary, we do not at all doubt that the public and the profession approve cordially of the course pursued by the "insignificant minority," and would gladly have seen it imitated by the slow-moving and "sacred" majority.

These attacks, however, upon Judges COURTIS and MCLELLAN, for publishing their opinions, that the world might know on what grounds they differed from their Judicial brethren, and strikingly characteristic of Slave Democracy, and designed, if possible, by getting up a side issue, to divert attention from the decision itself. This is the whole secret of the News' affected indignation at the dissenting Judges, and of its elaborate apologies of the Chief Justice for taking this time in making public his decision. Had he waited a year or two longer to do this, no doubt the great satisfaction of the News would have been still more complete.

DISSENTING OPINIONS NOT FOR THE PUBLIC EYE.—The News bids fair to rival the Supreme Court in its extraordinary decisions, about the Dred Scott case. In yesterday's issue it thus establishes a new point:

Judge MILLER never "burst upon the country" through the pages of the News, or in any other manner, an opinion that was not his own.

He has never spoken them. He has, respecting a cause, which he did not constitute the Court. Nor so with the Sentinel's friends, the two dissenting judges in the majority of Dred Scott. They did not, in compliance with the Court, recite their dissenting views. Thus, view after view of public concern only as far as the abolitionists might see them in all sedition and seditionough upon the established institutions of the country.

This is rare logic, truly. According to the News, dissenting opinions, not being law, ought never to be published, lest they stimulate "reckless and audacious onslaught upon the institutions of the country," including, even, the "sacred" Supreme Court itself. We suggest that the News go one step further and make that thing complete—that is, inhibit the judges of the "sacred" Court from publishing any opinions at all, and limit them to give decisions without reasons therefor, lest in those reasons might be found something that the "abolitionists" or other mischievous might use in aid of their recklessness and seditionous onslaughts.

No Ringers that a White Man is Bound to Reward.—The now famous and abominable sentiment, that the African had no rights, but the white man is bound to respect, uttered by Judge TANEY, in his opinion in the Dred Scott case, may be found on page 402 of the officially published copy of that opinion, and occurs as follows:

"They, i. e., the African, have no rights which the white man is bound to respect, but the white race, either in social or political relations, or in any other way, has rights which the white men were bound to respect; and that the negro might justly and lawfully be reduced to slavery in his bonds."

Judge TANEY will be dismally remembered for this declaration, longer than he will be honorably remembered for any act of clemency of life. It will stick to him in memory like the shirt of Nessus.

sale of Indian Lands in Kansas.

Instructions were on Saturday transmitted from the General Land Office to the Land Offices at Doniphan and Leavenworth, Kansas Territory, respecting the receipt at the sale of Indian trust lands in June and July next of the transfer draft on New York. These drafts have been supplied by the Treasury Department to the Assistant Treasurer at St. Louis, Mo., and are in sum of $1,000, $5,000, $10,000 and $20,000 each. Persons desirous of depositing their moneys at St. Louis can obtain these drafts, to be used in the purchase of the lands in question. The premium on the drafts is not less than one-eighth per cent.

BUILDING in New York.—The New York Journal of Commerce names 105 buildings now in course of erection in that city, which will cost $50,000,000. Among them are the following banking houses:

Bank of Commerce..... 40,000
Do. New York..... 125,000
Continental Bank..... 100,000
Union Bank..... 80,000
American Exchange Bank..... 100,000
Dime City Bank..... 18,000
Emigrant Ind. Savings Bank..... 40,000
Wm. B. Astor's Banking house..... 75,000

Amer. B. Astor is building a hotel, to cost $200,000. Stewart is enlarging his dry goods palace at a cost of $200,000. Dr. Spring's new church is due for $140,000—the Times building for $120,000—the Astor Library for $140,000—the American Express Co. for $50,000—J. J. Phelps' store for $150,000; and Thomas Hunt's store for $100,000.

Immigration.—During the four months ending May 1st, 11,214 emigrants left Boston for the U. S., in 47 vessels, while during the same period last year, only 6,984 passengers in 35 vessels sailed from there, thus showing an increase of 4,230 over the number who emigrated last year.

LITERACY.—It is reported that a member of Rev. Dr. Phillips' Church, New York, has contributed $50,000 to endow a professorship in the College of New Jersey, at Princeton.

THE MILWAUKEE DAILY SENTINEL
